Mala Beads

Geared to teens and adults ages 12 & up Make a Mala bead project. Mala beads are a set of beads that have traditionally been used in prayer & meditation. You don't have to be religious or have any spiritual practice. Anyone can wear mala beads, whether you meditate or not. Often, people are drawn to the mala beads for their believed healing qualities of calming the mind and providing inner peace. Malas are typically made with 18, 27, 54 or 108 beads. We will be making an 18 bead mala bracelet with the Guru bead & charm or tassel. The beads represent your intention and the Guru bead represents your teacher(s) in life & also the teacher within yourself. $5 per person fee. The library is paying a portion of your fee as well.
