THE MUSIC OF WORLD WAR II

War Songs and their Stories

Thursday, November 10 • 11:00 am-12:30 pm

Some of the most memorable and enduring popular music of the Twentieth Century was written during the Second World War. With patriotism at an all-time high, the war effort became an integral part of the entertainment industry, creating an emotional wartime dream world of heroes, love, remembrance, reflection, and introspection. Through his book, Music of World War II, author Sheldon Winkler tells the stories behind the origins of many of these musical compositions, some of which have survived to become standards and are popular to this day. Books will be available at $15 cash and a donation to the Library will be made from each sale.

Register: 480-488-2286.

Check It Out!

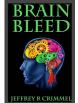

From the pre--historic caves in France, to the mountains of Wyoming and the pop--art scene of New York, artists have created images of wildlife for many purposes. They recorded what they saw in the natural world, used animals as symbols in storytelling, and glorified wild animals to promote messages about conversation. "Wildlife Art through the Ages," will explore this topic with brilliant and colorful works dating from 30,000 B.C. to the present. Presenter Nancy Millman has been a docent at Phoenix Art Museum since 2001 and is also the author of the book Emperors of Adland, published by Warner Books. Register: 480-488-2286.
