the Unforgettable Masterpiece
Saturday, October 14 • 10:30 am–12:30 pm
Wisconsin Author Yvonne Pallini, takes us on a journey through the unforgettable masterpiece, and the four other Klimt paintings that were returned to Marie Altmann by the Belvedere Museum in Austria in 2006.
A fascinating update on an extraordinary story about the Klimt paintings stolen by the Nazis from the Bloch-Bauer family’s grand palais in Vienna in 1940, and returned to Marie Altmann, the last survivor of the Bloch-Bauer family. This lecture includes an update on the progress being made in the Nazi art restitution process internationally. Mary F. Cook will tell the story. She is a Member of the International Foundation for Art Research, which was the Art Register, maintains the largest data bank of stolen art in the world.
