WWII Cinematic Reflections
Little Known Stories of the War
May 10 • 3–5 pm (3rd Fridays)
World War II is one of the best known and widely depicted conflicts in history. This film series will explore little known stories from that war – stories filled with daring, intrigue, and sometimes such improbability that they have to be seen to be believed. At the heart of each one are the men and women who made World War II modern history’s seminal event. A post-film discussion, facilitated by Gary Zaro, faculty WWII expert from El Paso Valley Community College (PVCC), will follow. This month: Woman in Gold (109 min.). Register: 480-488-2286.

Cornelia Parker
Monuments, Memories and Movies
Wednesday, May 3 • 11 am–Noon
Conceptual artist Cornelia Parker is one of the most creative and innovative artists working in Britain today. Her wide ranging practice, chiefly in installation art and sculpture, touches on the fragility of the human experience. Exploring everything from ghosts to gravity to relics and the works of art. We will be exploring how Monuments, Memories and Movies have given inspiration to Cornelia Parker. Presented by Eileen Crowley, docent of The Phoenix Art Museum. Register: 480-488-2286.

Music at the Movies
May 4 • 2–5 pm (1st Thursdays)
Chicago: Nightclub sensation Velma (Catherine Zeta-Jones) murders her philandering husband, and Chicago’s slickest lawyer, Billy Flynn (Richard Gere), is set to defend her. But when Roxie (Renée Zellweger) also winds up in prison, Billy takes on her case as well, turning her into a media circus of headlines. Neither woman will be outdone in her fight against each other and the public for fame and celebrity. 109 min. Hosted by Music enthusiast Annis Scott.
No Registration.

Monday Movies @ the Library
