*Storyscope Story Circle - Live Performance Preview from Upcoming Living Library Play - “Looking Back”
Friday, October 27, 2:00 - 4:00 pm
You’re invited to DFL’s first-ever Living Library program! First, you’ll be treated to a live scene from “Looking Back,” a new, original play by Andrea Markowitz about a real-life 1950s Cave Creek rancher who plans to subdivide his ranch. The scene involves his conflict with a neighbor who does not want a subdivision bordering her ranch.
Next, the audience will break out into facilitated Story Circles to react to the scene and share our own stories about living in the Cave Creek region. Each person will have about three minutes to share a personal story based on the theme for the day: “At home in the Cave Creek area, what calls you to live in the desert foothills?” When all stories are told, the group will reflect on connections made. “Looking Back” will be presented in its entirety Nov. 17 - 19 at Desert Foothills Library, in collaboration with Desert Foothills Theater and the Cave Creek Museum.
This special event launches DFL’s new “Living Library” program, to preserve the history of Carefree and Cave Creek through the hearts and minds of the people who lived it. Be among the first to experience our Living Library!
Story Circles Facilitator: John Genette, co-founder of the Storyscope Project.

For ONE AFTERNOON ONLY, Saturday, November 18th, after the play concludes, you can mingle with the performers AND the playwright herself, Andrea Markowitz, in this one of a kind "talk back". LOS ANGELES REMEMBERED - A PAINTING EXHIBIT BY ARTIST JEFF LEADER
THURSDAY, OCTOBER 26, 4 PM

Experience the glitz and glamour of Hollywood & Los Angeles with a Pop Art Flair! Artist Jeff Leader will be unveiling his art exhibit, “Los Angeles Remembered” at the Desert Foothills Library with a public reception on October 26. Mix and mingle with the artist, hear about the inspiration behind his works, and enjoy some light refreshments.

“Having grown up in Los Angeles, and specifically the Hollywood area, I’ve tried to capture some of my memories now lost in time of those years in my paintings, which I will be happy to explain to anyone interested. As a graduate of the Chouinard Art Institute, one of the finest schools in our country during the sixties, I was fortunate enough to study with many artists now hanging in museums around the world as well as having fellow classmates who are now likewise recognized. It was while exhibiting my own works that I transitioned to Hollywood show biz where I produced, wrote, was a member of the Camera and Sound Guilds and edited for every major studio in town. Yes, I worked on movies, television and commercials that you hopefully enjoyed!” - Jeff Leader
